

WHO'S WHO 2015

IN THE

MINERD-MINARD-MINER-MINOR FAMILY

The First Four Generations of Descendants of Pioneers Jacob Miner Sr. and Maria Margaret Neün, of Fayette/Somerset County, PA:

THE FIRST MEMBERS OF OUR FAMILY to settle in Western Pennsylvania were Jacob and Maria Margaret (Neün) Miner Sr. They moved to Maple Summit along the border of Fayette and Somerset Counties in 1791, where they built a log cabin, cleared land for a farm and boiled salt along the Youghiogheny River. They moved there from Emmetsburg, MD, where they had briefly lived after beginning married life in Oley Twp., near Reading, Berks Co., PA, where both had grown up. Jacob's parents, Friedrich and Eva Maria (Weber) Meinert, had settled in Oley in about 1730. From 1791 forward Jacob's descendants spelled their name "Minerd" and "Minard" -- unique spellings which distinguish this clan from any other known in the United States.

Jacob Sr. and Maria had 12 children (of whom 8 are known), at least 67 grandchildren and at least 310 great-grandchildren. The pioneers' known or suspected children were:

1. Jacob Miner Jr. of Kingwood, PAPages 2-3
2. Martha (Minerd) Imel Harbaugh near Scullton, PA 4
3. Henry Miner of near Connellsville, PA 5-7
4. Frederick Miner Sr. of Sego, OH 8-9
5. Daniel Miner Sr. of Sego and Cardington, OH 10-12
6. Burket Miner of Kingwood, WV. 13
7. Mrs. John Ream of Ursina, PA (nothing more known)
8. John Minard Sr. of Scio, OH..... 14-16
9. Jacob Miner (grandson?) of Philippi, WV & Athens, OH... 16-18

Over the years the family exploded in size and scattered in countless directions. Several branches dropped the "d" from the name and spell it "Miner" and "Minor." On Aug. 21, 1913, exactly 125 descendants gathered at Ohiopyle, Pa., for the first-ever reunion. At that event, cousin Allen E. Harbaugh gave a landmark speech about the history of the family. Today, the count of known descendants and their spouses is estimated at 50,000, and growing.

After a layoff of many decades, the Minerd-Minard-Miner-Minor Reunion was reorganized in the 1980s. It is held at the enclosed, air conditioned Indian Creek Valley Community Center near Donegal, PA. Our 2008 reunion and website were recognized by the Pittsburgh 250

Commission and Greater Pittsburgh Convention and Visitors Bureau for their roles in drawing tourism to Pittsburgh, ranked as America's "Most Livable City" (Places Rated Almanac, 2007).

Other cousins have been active in establishing reunions of Western Pennsylvania pioneer clans. In 1934, Charles A. Younkin of Charleroi, PA, co-founded the National Younkin Home-Coming Reunion and edited the Younkin Family News Bulletin from 1937 to 1941. His brother Warren D. Younkin of Connellsville, PA, was the first President of the Harbaugh Reunion in 1926, still held today.

The names of the known members of the first four generations of the family are listed inside. This booklet was originally published as a free handout at the 1993 reunion. It has been substantially and regularly updated as more names and relationships are proven. It is intended to be the beginning rather than the end of a discovery process, because there is much more to be learned. Hopefully this booklet will create awareness, stimulate interest and curiosity, and encourage others to enjoy the magic of their own discoveries. Future research should reveal many more thousands of offspring.

The next steps are now underway – to share the stories and photo images of the lives of these hundreds of early cousins to measure their massive, combined impact on American society.

Cousin Eugene Podraza of Lawrenceville, NJ, primarily has been responsible for identifying the pioneers' offspring who themselves were pioneers of Ohio, West Virginia and the Midwest.

Text changes made in 2013-2014, reflecting new research discoveries, are shown in a blue font. For more information, contact reunion president Mark A. Miner, P.O. Box 451, Beaver, PA 15009, or visit our award-winning website at www.minerd.com.

Family of Jacob Miner Jr. and Catherine Younkin:

Jacob (1780-1842) and Catherine (1787-1847) lived on a 500-acre farm at Hexebarger near Kingwood, Somerset Co., PA. They had 9 children, 63 grandchildren and 226 great-great grandchildren. Family of Daniel Miner Sr. and 1. Mary "Peggy" (?), 2. Margaret Fluckey:

Daniel Miner

Margaret (Fluckey) Miner

Daniel (1776-1854) is almost certainly one of the pioneers' sons. He had a close relationship with his brother, Frederick Miner Sr., who is proven to be ours'. In 1812, they jointly bought land in Sego, Perry Co., OH. As well, Daniel's 1st wife rests with Frederick and his two wives in the same row of plots at the Hopewell Cemetery near Sego. After the death of Daniel's 1st wife Mary (1779-1813), he was left with a family of 7 children. He soon remarried, and had 10 more children. In 1835, Daniel and his 2nd wife Peggy (1793-1865) moved to near Cardington, Morrow Co., OH, where they are buried. All told, Daniel had 17 children, 74 grandchildren and 106 great-grandchildren. The grave of Daniel's 1st wife at Hopewell is the oldest known grave marker in the family. The portraits of Daniel and his 2nd wife, shown here, are the only known photos of any of the pioneers' children.

John (1766-1867) and Mary (1776-1845) left Fayette County, PA in about 1817 to become pioneer settlers of near Scio, Harrison County, OH. They had 12 children, 91 grandchildren and 282 great-grandchildren. They are known to have lived in Maryland early in the marriage and later moved to the Laurel Hill mountain on the border of Fayette-Somerset Counties, PA, following the same migration pattern as his parents. In 1817, John bought 159 acres near Scio, OH, and they resided on this farm the rest of their lives. John died on April 12, 1867, "in the full possession of his faculties," after celebrating his 100th birthday.

Family of Jacob Miner and Ruth Ann Adams:

Jacob (1814- ?) was born in Dunbar, Fayette County, PA, of Pennsylvania-German heritage. While his parents are not known, Jacob is believed to have been a grandson of our pioneer ancestors, Jacob and Maria (Nein) Miner Sr. Ruth (1818-1895), was the daughter of John O. Adams, and a Native American, and was considered mulatto. Jacob and Ruth's first farm was on the border of Fayette/Somerset Counties, PA, just a few miles from the original 1791 Miner pioneer farm. They later migrated to Monongalia and Preston Counties, PA before settling for good in Philippi, Barbour County, WV and Athens County, OH. They had 10 children and 66 identified grandchildren. Widely labeled of mixed-race or "colored," their offspring were cast out of society, neither white nor black, and faced lifetimes of discrimination because of their skin color, with at least two marrying former slaves. There have been more than 190 marriages between the Miner-Miner and Mayle-Male clans of West Virginia and Ohio.

WHO'S WHO 2015

AMONG THE FIRST 4 GENERATIONS OF DESCENDANTS OF FRIEDRICH AND CATHERINE (NEIN) MEINERT JR. (MEINDER) OF BERKS COUNTY, PA

Frederick Meinert Jr., the son of Friedrich and Eva Maria (Weber) Meinert Sr., was born in the late 1730s or early 1740s in the Oley Valley of Philadelphia County, now Berks County, PA. Probably out of ignorance on how to spell German names, local officials frequently wrote the name of this branch of the family "Meinder." Some members of this family who moved west to Wisconsin and Iowa in the 1850s eventually dropped the "e" and spell the name "Minder." In addition to these two spellings, on some of the land records in Berks County the name is spelled "Miner" or "Meiner." In 1763 Friedrich married Catherine Nein, the daughter Casper and Barbara Neün, German immigrants of the Oley Valley. (The two families were close, and Friedrich's brother Jacob married Catherine's sister Maria.) Frederick owned a farm in Rockland Township, where he owned 108-acres and ran a grist mill and a saw mill. They were members of the Mertz Church in Rockland Township. When the Revolutionary War broke out, Frederick joined the county militia and was in the First Battalion of Captain Focht's company. When the war ended, he signed an oath of allegiance to the new U.S. government. Frederick died in 1816 leaving no will. In all probability, he and Catherine are buried at the Mertz church, but no grave markers exist there today.

Frederick and Catherine had 6 children, and an unknown number of grandchildren and great-grandchildren, a count which we hope to ascertain someday. The children were Elizabeth Meinter, Susan Sigfried, Sarah Friedrich, Burkhart Meinder, Anna Maria Wertz and Friedrich Meinert (Frederick Miner) III.

1. Susan Siegfried (Siegfried) of Berks County22
2. Sarah Friedrich (Frederick) of Berks County22
3. Burkhard Meinder of near Dryville, PA23-24
4. Frederick Miner III of Mauch Chunk, PA.24-25
5. Elizabeth Meinter nothing more known
6. Anna Maria Wertz..... nothing more known

Family of Jacob and Susan (Meinder) Siegfried:

Susan Minder (? - ?) married Jacob Sigfrid (or "Siegfried"), the son of Michael and Justina Sigfrid. They were wed on Oct. 7, 1794, "the banns having been called," reported the publication Records of the American Catholic Historical Society of Philadelphia, Vol. 8. Performing the ceremony was Rev. N. Delvaux at St. Paul's mission church at Goshenhoppen, Hereford Township, Berks County. (In the priest's old German writing, the location of the church was in "Goschenhoppen, Herefordt Daunschipp Bergs Kaunti.") Witnesses were Joseph Sigfrid and Susan's brother "Burchard Minder" (Burkhart Meinder). According to the Records book, the name of the church was changed in 1837 to the Church of the Blessed Sacrament in what was now known as Bally, Berks County. Nothing more is known.

Family of George Adam and Sarah (Meinder) Friedrich:

Sarah Meinder (1776-1858) was born on Jan. 22, 1776 in Rockland Township, Berks County, PA. She married George "Adam" Friedrich (Americanized to "Frederick") (1778-1858). They had seven known children -- Jonathan "Jonas" Friedrich Sr., Lydia Friedrich, Peter Friedrich, Adam Friedrich, George Friedrich, Hannah Friedrich and Sara Frederick. Sarah died at the age of 82 on Feb. 7, 1858, in Rockland Township. She was laid to rest in New Jerusalem Cemetery in the township. Records of the cemetery, prepared in 1986, show that her grave is in Row 10, between her husband and Johannes Jaus. (The report's editors were Fay L. Cox, Anna Schroeder and Elaine D. Schwar.) A brief obituary was printed in the Feb. 23, 1858 edition of the weekly Reading Adler newspaper. In German, it reads: "Starb: - am 7ten Diefes, in Rocland, Sara Friedrich, Sattin von Adam Friederich, im Alter von 82 Jahren und 16 Tagen. Translated into English, it reads: "Died: - on 17 [Diefes], in Rockland, Sara Friederich, wife of Adam Friederich, in age of 82 years and 16 days." Adam followed her to the grave just a little more than a month later, on March 15, 1858. He also rests for eternity in New Jerusalem.

Family of Burkhard and Elizabeth (Konrath) Meinder:

Burkhard Meinert (Meinder) was born in the late 1760s in Oley Township, Berks County, PA, the son of Friedrich and Catherine (Nein) Meinert Jr. His first name also has been spelled "Burkhart," "Burgard," "Borghardt" and "Berghardt" over the years, among other variations, and his surname also has been spelled as "Meinter" and "Minder." The name of his first wife is unknown. They lived in Potter Township, Centre County, PA in 1793 when their only son was born -- Johannes "John" Minder. After several years as a widower, Burkhard married his second wife, Elizabeth Konrath, spelled "Conrad," the daughter of Wilhelm Konrath. They were married May 29, 1798 at Trinity Lutheran Church in Reading, Berks County. Burkhard was a yeoman by trade, owning a farm in Rockland Township. The township was created in 1758 out of Oley Township. Tax records of Northampton County in 1786 show Burkhard, spelled "Borgert Meinert," with the occupation of blacksmith. He owned 11 acres of land, one horse and two hed of cattle. Their children baptized at the Mertz Church in Dryville. They also were sponsors for others baptized in the church, such as Catharine Bayer, (June 1819); and Jakub Christmann (Jan. 1822). It is believed that Burkhard and Elizabeth are buried at the cemetery at Mertz Church in Rockland. However, there are no gravestones for either of them.

Family of Friedrich and Elizabeth (?) Meinder III (a.k.a. Frederick Miner III)

Frederick Miner III, also spelled "Friedrich Meinder," was born in about 1787, the son of Friedrich and Catherine (Nein) Meinert Jr. He was the third generation in this line of the family to carry the first name "Friedrich" or "Frederick." He married Elizabeth (?) (1788- ?). He first appears in the public record on the federal census of 1810 of Rockland Township, Berks County, PA. On that census, his age was given as between 26 and 45, and his wife's age as between 16 and 26. The census-taker spelled his name "Fredk Minder Jun." When their daughter Elizabeth was born in 1812, she was baptized at the Mertz Beiber church in Rockland Township, Berks County. The ceremony was held on Oct. 28, 1812, with Friedrich and Catherine (?) serving as sponsors. In this record, the family surname is spelled "Meinter." Sometime after 1820, the Miners migrated to Mauch Chunk, Northampton County (later renamed "Carbon" County), PA. Friedrich died in 1854 at the age of 67. Probate court documents of his estate show that he left land on the northward side of West Broadway in Mauch Chunk. The value of his personal effects were insufficient to pay his debts, and the court ruled that his real estate needed to be liquidated to generate the needed cash. As a widow, Elizabeth went to live in the household of her married daughter Leah Schall in Mauch Chunk. She is shown in their dwelling in the 1860 federal census. Living a few doors away was her married son John and his sons. Their burial places are unknown.
