

WHO'S WHO

A large group photograph of a family spanning five generations. The group is posed outdoors in front of a stone wall. In the front row, several young children are sitting on the ground. Behind them, more children and young adults are standing or sitting. The back rows consist of older adults, including men and women, some wearing hats. The overall tone is historical and formal.

JACOB AND MARIA (NEÜN) MINERD SR. OF BERKS COUNTY, PA AND FAYETTE/SOMERSET COUNTIES, PA

THE FIRST MEMBERS OF OUR FAMILY to settle in Western Pennsylvania were Jacob and Maria Margaret (Neün) Miner, Sr. They moved to Maple Summit along the border of Fayette and Somerset Counties in 1791, where they built a log cabin, cleared land for a farm and boiled salt along the Youghiogheny River. They moved there from Emmetsburg, MD, where they had briefly lived after beginning married life in Oley Twp., near Reading, Berks Co., PA, where both had grown up. Jacob's parents, Friedrich and Eva Maria (Weber) Meinert, had settled in Oley in about 1730. From 1791 forward Jacob's descendants spelled their name 'Miner' and 'Minard' -- unique spellings which distinguish this clan FR.

Jacob Sr. and Maria had 12 children (of whom 8 are known), at least 71 full and step-grandchildren and at least 340 full-and-step great-grandchildren. The known names are:

1. Jacob Miner Jr. of Kingwood, PA Pg. 3-4
2. Martha (Miner) Imel Harbaugh 5-6
3. Henry Miner of near Connellsville, PA 7-9
4. Frederick Miner Sr. of Sego, OH 10-11
5. Daniel Miner Sr. of Sego/Cardington, OH 12-14
6. Catharine Ream of Ursina, PA 15
7. Burket Miner of Kingwood, WV. 16-17
8. John Minard Sr. of Scio, OH 18-20

Grandson (parents unknown)?:

9. Jacob Miner Sr. of Philippi, WV/Athens, OH 21-23

Over the years the family exploded in size and scattered in countless directions. Several branches dropped the "d" from the name and spell it "Miner" and "Minor." On Aug. 21, 1913, exactly 125 descendants gathered at Ohiopyle, Pa., for the first-ever reunion. At that event, cousin Allen E. Harbaugh gave a landmark speech about the history of the family.

Family of Jacob Miner Jr. and Catherine Younklin:

Jacob (1780-1842) and Catherine (1787-1847) lived on a 500-acre farm at Hexebarger near Kingwood, Somerset Co., PA. They had 9 children, 63 grandchildren and 226 great-great grandchildren. He was a farmer and distiller, and in politics a Whig. They were members of the Christian Church of Turkeyfoot. Jacob Jr. died after being crushed while chopping down a tree. His will is on file at the Somerset County courthouse. They are buried in unmarked graves at the site of the former Fairview Church of the Brethren near Kingwood.

Daniel Miner

Margaret (Fluckey) Miner

Daniel (1776-1854) is almost certainly one of the pioneers' sons. He had a close relationship with his brother, Frederick Miner Sr., who is proven to be ours'. In 1812, they jointly bought land in Sego, Perry Co., OH. As well, Daniel's 1st wife rests with Frederick and his two wives in the same row of plots at the Hopewell Cemetery near Sego. After the death of Daniel's 1st wife Mary (1779-1813), he was left with a family of 7 children. He soon remarried, and had 10 more children. In 1835, Daniel and his 2nd wife Peggy (1793-1865) moved to near Cardington, Morrow Co., OH, where they are buried. All told, Daniel had 17 children, 74 grandchildren and 106 great-grandchildren. Catharine (Minerd) Ream was the 2nd of 3 wives of John Ream (1764-1839), originally spelled 'Rihm,' a farmer whose land became the town of Ursina, Somerset County, PA. The main reference to Catharine in published history is a paragraph about her father in the 1882 book by Franklin Ellis, History of Fayette County. The sentence reads as follows: "Another of Minerd's daughters married John Ream, the founder of Ursina village, in [Somerset] county." John and his 1st wife, Anna Rosina Weitzel had produced 4 children, and when she died in 1792 from the bite of a snake, and he then married our Catharine Minerd, she became stepmother to the young children. Her first name -- the only known instances in which it is recorded in writing -- is found in Somerset County deeds involving deeds of land in 1822 to their son-in-law David Jennings. Catharine passed away sometime during the seven-year span between 1822 and 1829. By 1829, John had married his 3rd bride, Elizabeth Smith (? - ?), widow of John Smith. Catharine's four step-children produced 33 grandchildren and 135+ great-grandchildren.

Family of Jacob Miner Sr. and Ruth Ann Adams:

Jacob (1814- ?) was born in Dunbar, Fayette County, PA, of Pennsylvania-German heritage. While his parents are not known, Jacob is believed to have been a grandson of our pioneer ancestors, Jacob and Maria (Nein) Miner Sr. Ruth (1818-1895), was the daughter of John O. Adams, and a Native American, and was considered mulatto. Jacob and Ruth's first farm was on the border of Fayette/Somerset Counties, PA, just a few miles from the original 1791 Miner pioneer farm. They later migrated to Monongalia and Preston Counties, PA before settling for good in Philippi, Barbour County, WV and Athens County, OH. They had 10 children and 66 identified grandchildren. Widely labeled of mixed-race or "colored," their offspring were cast out of society, neither white nor black, and faced lifetimes of discrimination because of their skin color, with at least two marrying former slaves. There have been more than 200 marriages between the Minard-Miner and Mayle-Male clans of West Virginia and Ohio.

FAMILIES OF FRIEDRICH AND CATHERINE (NEIN) MEINERT JR., A.K.A. 'MEINDER' OF BERKS COUNTY, PA

Frederick Meinert Jr., the son of Friedrich and Eva Maria (Weber) Meinert Sr., was born in the late 1730s or early 1740s in the Oley Valley of Philadelphia County, now Berks County, PA. Probably out of ignorance on how to spell German names, local officials frequently wrote the name of this branch of the family "Meinder." Some members of this family who moved west to Wisconsin and Iowa in the 1850s eventually dropped the "e" and spell the name "Minder." In addition to these two spellings, on some of the land records in Berks County the name is spelled "Miner" or "Meiner."

In 1763 Friedrich married Catherine Nein, the daughter Casper and Barbara Neün, German immigrants of the Oley Valley. (The two families were close, and Friedrich's brother Jacob married Catherine's sister Maria.) Frederick owned a farm in Rockland Township, where he owned 108-acres and ran a grist mill and a saw mill. They were members of the Mertz Church in Rockland Township. When the Revolutionary War broke out, Frederick joined the county militia and was in the First Battalion of Captain Focht's company. When the war ended, he signed an oath of allegiance to the new U.S. government. Frederick died in 1816 leaving no will. In all probability, he and Catherine are buried at the Mertz church, but no grave markers exist there today.

Frederick and Catherine had 6 children, and an unknown number of grandchildren and great-grandchildren, a count which we hope to ascertain someday. The children were Elizabeth Meinter, Susan Sigfried, Sarah Friedrich, Burkhardt Meinder, Anna Maria Wertz and Friedrich Meinert (Frederick Miner) III.
